ALASKA AND POLAR REGIONS COLLECTIONS AND ARCHIVES, ELMER E. RASMUSON LIBRARY, UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA FAIRBANKS, FAIRBANKS, ALASKA

Alaska Native Review Commission Records, 1983-1985

(researched by William Schneider)

This collection contains the background material for the Alaska Native Review Commission hearings that were held around Alaska in 1984 and 1985 by Justice Thomas Berger to gather public testimony about the effects of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act and how it was or was not working. While this collection also contains transcripts of the hearings, the audio and video recordings of the hearings along with transcripts are available at the Oral History Collection and the Alaska Film Archives, Elmer E. Rasmuson Library, University of Alaska Fairbanks (see listings below), as well as the Historical Collections, Alaska State Library in Juneau. The original "Index for Transcript of Proceedings of the Alaska Native Review Commission" held by the Historical Collections, Alaska State Library is available online at:
